MAJOR JOSEPH A. ALLEGRETTI

Major Joseph A. Allegretti is Director of Public Affairs, Aeronautical Systems Center, Air Force Materiel Command, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. With an annual budget of more than $19 billion, ASC is the Air Force center for research, development, and acquisition of aircraft and aeronautical systems. Major Allegretti is responsible for public affairs activities to develop and maintain understanding and public support for these aerospace programs.

Major Allegretti was commissioned through the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps at the University of Northern Colorado at Greeley in 1990. He has served in a variety of intelligence analyst and public affairs positions ranging from squadron to numbered Air Force levels. He served as an intelligence analyst with 12th and 13th Air Force, as well as with the 909th Air Refueling Squadron. Major Allegretti then became a public affairs officer and served as the speechwriter for the commander of Electronic Systems Center, Hanscom AFB, Mass., and chief of a DoD-wide recruit advertising campaign. Major Allegretti deployed to Thailand in support of Operation Desert Strike and to Panama in support of Joint Task Force Bravo. Prior to his arrival at ASC, Major Allegretti attended Air Command and Staff College, Maxwell AFB, Ala.
